

E.M. Bradford Seeks a Pardon, 1865

Norfolk Sept 2nd 1865
To his Excellency Andrew Johnson President of the United States Petition of Edmund Bradford of the City of Norfolk respectfully represents; that he is a graduate of West Point of the Class of 1837, and remained in the Army until the Spring of 1849, having during that time served through the Florida and Mexican Wars - that he married a daughter of the late Geo Tazewell of the City of Norfolk, where he has resided ever since, pursuing the avocation of a farmer - In November 1859, he was elected Captain of a Volunteer Company in the City of Norfolk, which he commanded at the time Virginia seceded in April 1861, but was soon afterwards appointed Major by the Governor of Virginia, and subsequently Asst-Inspector General of the Forces in and around Norfolk, by Gen' Gwynn - Before the evacuation of Norfolk by the Confederate Army, he ceased to be in the service of either State or Government - He then went to North Carolina, and remained there until he received the appointment of Major and Quartermaster in the Confederate Army in June 1863, and subsequently was appointed Inspector of Quartermasters collecting the Tax in kind, which position he held until the surrender

Letter from Edmund Bradford to President Andrew Johnson, September 2, 1865, Accession 24194, Tazewell Family Papers, The Library of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia.